

Tax Associate

Responsibilities

Slattery & Holman P.C. is seeking a part-time tax associate to work primarily during tax season, February through April. We are looking for a candidate that will prepare or review complex individual tax returns. Within the firm we pride ourselves on being experts in tax compliance but our success is driven by the value we add beyond compliance work. For this reason, most tax returns prepared at Slattery & Holman P.C. are somewhat complex. You should have the desire to learn how to most effectively and efficiently prepare and review these tax returns. We take our clients' trust in us very seriously, so professional client contact and communication will be required. We will provide a friendly work environment with challenging job opportunities to expand your knowledge.

Qualifications

- 3+ years of public accounting experience
- CPA certification
- Ability to prepare and review complex individual tax returns
- Capacity to learn software quickly, proficient in ProSystem Tax a plus
- Team oriented approach to accomplishing firm-wide goals
- Excellent verbal/written communication skills

About Slattery & Holman P.C.

We are a full service accounting and consulting firm serving businesses and individuals throughout Indiana. We provide a high level of personal attention to our clients. We distinguish ourselves from the competition with creative thinking and by continuously exceeding expectations. Our client relationships typically last over twenty years, well beyond the industry average. We are selective in the clients we choose to work with so we can provide not only short term services but big picture insights. For over 30 years, Slattery & Holman P.C. has built a strong reputation in the community for developing successful relationships.